CROWDS HECKLE "SUFFS" WHO OPPOSE COMPULSION

LONDON Jan 18 Suffragets held a demonstration in Myde park Sumday to protest against the compulsion bill. Addresses were made by numerous speak-ors, women and mon from five plat-ered.

There was considerable beckling of the speakers by the rrowd and soon after the beginning of the suffraget demonstration a group of men wearing beelly armiets organized a counter meeting nearby, where speaches in favor of computation continued as long as the suffraget speakers held out.

The crowds were in good humor and Tragel speakers held out.
The crowds were in good humor and the meetings broke up without any violence after the suffragets had passed a resolution against conscription and industrial compulsion, and demanding a more democratic form of government in which the women shall have a vote.
